MAY MANTON FASHIONS

EMPIRE STYLES STILL IN EVIDENCE.

By May Manton.

(Written Especially for The Evening World.)

THE influence that Empire styles have been exerting over the fashionable world is made peculiarly manifest in the great prevalence of the peculiar green of the period. As it is delightfully cool in effect and blends most perfectly with white, the fact is a welcome one.

Parasols in the thinnest possible batiste are greatly in vogue for wear with lingerie costumes. Many of them are elaborately embroidered by hand and trimmed with insets of Irish lace.

Among the latest novelties in accessories are handkerchief pockets of embroidered linen designed to be attached to the belt.

Turn-over collars of embroidered linen worn with butterfly bows of lace are much liked for linen suits and are dainty and summer-like in the extreme.

Green parasols are much used with white costumes and, indeed, with all with which they harmonize, and are found exceedingly restful to the eyes.

Dog collars are being shown in almost endless variety, but are particularly attractive in coral combined with rhinestones. They are worn over the lace collars of lingerie blouses, serving the double purpose of keeping them in place and adding to the effect.

Some of the latest bathing suits are as satisfactory from the practical standpoint as they are from the one of style. They are made of black taffeta which is woven especially for the purpose, are well cut and well fitted and are collarless, the necks being cut to form small squares which are finished with flat banding. With these are worn caps of silk rubber, either bright red or one of the brilliant clan plaids.

The Fashionable Gown of Silk.

(Pattern No. 5402 and 5390.)

Thin silk makes a pronounced favorite of the summer, and here is a gown made in one of the lovely new pastel pinks that is trimmed with black and worn with a lace waist. Material for medium size: Eton, $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards 21, $1\frac{1}{2}$ yards 44 inches wide; for skirt 10 yards 21, $5\frac{3}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide if material has up and down; $9\frac{1}{4}$ yards 21, $4\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 if it has not. The Eton 5402, sizes 32 to 40; skirt 5390, sizes 22 to 30.

The Fashionable Green.

(Pattern No. 5352 and 5175.)

A smart costume made of chiffon taffeta in one of the new shades of green, with trimming of green and black, worn with a white lace waist and hat trimmed with flowers. Material for medium size: For Eton, $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards 21, $1\frac{1}{2}$ yards 44 inches wide, with $4\frac{1}{2}$ yards of banding; for skirt, 7 yards 27, $4\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide. Eton 5352, sizes 32 to 40; skirt 5175, sizes 22 to 30.

Fashionable Indoor Gowns.

(Pattern No. 5392 and 5107; 5363 and 5322.)

These two gowns are one made of white linen, one of flowered batiste trimmed with Valenciennes lace. The linen gown is in shirt-waist style, made with centre front of lace that gives a vest effect. Material for medium size: For waist, 4 yards 21, $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards 27 or $2\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide, with $3\frac{1}{4}$ yard of all-over lace; for skirt, $9\frac{1}{2}$ yards 27 or 5 yards 44 inches wide if material has up and down; $7\frac{1}{2}$ yards 27 or $4\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide if it has not. Waist 5392, sizes 32 to 42; skirt 5107, sizes 22 to 30.

The blue batiste gown is made with one of the pretty blouses that is tucked to form the yoke, the skirt being tucked in groups. Material required for medium size: For waist, 4 yards 21, $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards 27 or 2 yards 44 inches wide, with 8 yards of insertion; for skirt, $8\frac{3}{4}$ yards 27 or $6\frac{3}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide if material has up and down, $5\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide if it has not. The waist 5363, sizes 32 to 42; the skirt 5322, sizes 22 to 30.

For the Small Folk.

(Patterns Nos. 5392, 5367, 5036.)

The summer season means the need of all sorts of garments for the little folk. In 5392 is shown one of the daintiest possible little frocks made of dotted batiste with trimming of embroidery. For a child of four will be required $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards of material 27, $2\frac{1}{4}$ yards 36 or $1\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide, with $2\frac{1}{4}$ yards of insertion, and $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards of embroidery. Pattern 5392, sizes 2 to 6 years.

Such picturesque red coats as this one are much worn and are extremely effective, but taffeta plain and checked, serge and pique also are in vogue. For a girl of ten will be required $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards of material 27 or 2 yards 44 inches wide, with $\frac{1}{2}$ yard of velvet. The pattern 5367, sizes 6 to 12 years.

Active small boys require costumes that in no way interfere with free movement, and such a little suit as 5036 perfectly fulfills that requirement. Serge, mohair and even silk are used for the more dressy costumes, while for those of every day use, galatea and gingham are appropriate. For a boy of four will be required $4\frac{1}{2}$ yards of material 21, $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards 32 or $2\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide. Pattern 5036, sizes 2 to 6 years.

In Peter Pan Style.

(Pattern No. 5389 and 4744.)

Suits made in what is known as Peter Pan style are among the best-liked for young girls and suit them admirably well. This one is made of linen, embroidered, and is attractive, girlish and in the height of style. For a girl of sixteen the waist will require $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards of material 27, $1\frac{1}{2}$ yards 44 inches wide; the skirt 6 yards 27, $3\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide. Waist pattern 5389, 14 and 16 years; skirt pattern 4744, 12, 14 and 16 years.

Embroidered Muslin and Lace.

(Pattern No. 5359 and 5403.)

A dainty gown of straw-colored muslin, with trimming of Valenciennes lace. It suggests the princess idea without its severity, and is graceful in the extreme. Material for medium size: For waist, $4\frac{1}{4}$ yards 21; $2\frac{1}{4}$ yards 44 inches wide, with $1\frac{1}{2}$ yards of all-over lace, $8\frac{1}{2}$ yards of insertion; for skirt, 11 yards 21; 6 yards 44 inches wide, 30 yards of insertion. Waist pattern 5359, sizes 32 to 40; skirt pattern 5403, sizes 22 to 30.

A Dainty Girlish Frock.

(Pattern No. 5355.)

Nothing makes a prettier frock for a young girl than this bordered mousseline. The design also is a good one for embroidered flouncing, while plain materials can be trimmed in some suitable fashion. For a girl of fourteen will be required $9\frac{1}{4}$ yards of bordered material 27 inches wide, 1 yard of plain material and $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards of banding, or $7\frac{3}{4}$ yards 27 or 5 yards 44 inches wide of plain material. Pattern 5355, sizes 12 to 16 years of age.
